

What is AIDS?

ACQUIRED means you developed the disease and were not born with it.

IMMUNE means your immune system – your body's ability to protect you from diseases.

DEFICIENCY means a weakness in your body's system to fight disease.

SYNDROME is a group of health problems that make up a disease.